

Rob James

"Inner Magic Circle magician"

Based in London, UK | Parlour Magic

Biography

A Member of The Inner Magic Circle, Rob James creates intimate, unforgettable magic experiences - close-quarters work built for small groups rather than big stages, where the astonishment happens within arm's reach.

He is a regular cast member of The Magicians Table in London, and takes on only a limited number of private engagements each year, which keeps every booking personal and carefully prepared. That makes him a natural fit for weddings, milestone celebrations, dinners and corporate evenings where guests are close enough to see everything and still leave without an explanation. For hosts looking for something genuinely exceptional rather than simply entertaining, Rob James offers magic designed to be remembered long after the night ends.
