

Rob Lake

"Merlin Award-winning Broadway illusionist"

Based in Los Angeles | Corporate Events | Stage Illusion | Virtual Shows

Biography

Named "The World's Greatest Illusionist" by NBC, Rob Lake stages original grand illusions as theatrical storytelling roemotion, spectacle and wonder on the largest scale, with every effect in the show created, designed and engineered by Rob himself.

In 2008 he became the youngest magician in history to receive The Merlin Award for International Stage Magician of the Year, and his illusions have played Broadway, the Las Vegas Strip, the Dubai Opera House, Atlantis Bahamas and sold-out theaters, casinos and arenas in more than 60 countries. Away from his own stage he has designed magic for Disney's Aladdin, Death Becomes Her and Adele's Las Vegas residency at Caesars Palace. For meetings, corporate events, launches and award shows, his offerings range from intimate experiences to arena-sized spectacles.
