

Robert Danger Byrd

"Houston close-up and stage magician"

Based in Houston | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Magic

Biography

Based in Houston, Robert Danger Byrd is a master magician working in close-up magic, sleight of hand and full-scale stage illusions. An inventor with a tech background, Danger develops much of his own material, building signature illusions in a style of his own.

Audiences meet an engaging storyteller who reads the room and presents just the right illusion for the situation: table magic happening inches away, without props or gimmicks, and grand illusions scaled for larger crowds. He performs at weddings, mingling with guests over cocktails, at corporate parties, at trade show booths where a brand message is woven into the routine, and at family gatherings and children's birthdays across the Greater Houston area, from Galveston to The Woodlands.
