"Musical-theatre magic combining sleight, song and playful variety"

Based in Los Angeles, CA | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Robert Ramirez is an American magician and musical-theatre performer whose shows combine sleight of hand with singing, instruments, movement and comedy. He appeared twice on Fool Us and has performed at specialist venues including Liberty Magic, the Magic Castle and San Francisco's Marrakech Magic Theater. Arts programming described him as a musical-theatre magician, a useful distinction for a profile that spans magic and stage performance. Recent venue evidence supports continuing professional activity, but research did not locate a working performer-owned website, dependable home city, direct booking route or current personal calendar.
