

Rocco Silano

"Award-winning sleight-of-hand magician"

Based in Paterson, NJ | Close-Up Magic | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Award-winning magician Rocco Silano is known within the profession as the Michelangelo of Magic, and he is the only American to win awards at two FISM World Championships of Magic, the international competition often described as the Olympics of Magic. He is a multiple recipient of the Merlin Award and the winner of the Golden Lion Head Award presented by Siegfried and Roy in Las Vegas.

His magic is elegant, fluid, and impossibly clean, built on impeccable timing, extraordinary misdirection, and a presence that feels cinematic yet intimate. He has headlined the legendary Magic Castle in Hollywood and appeared on Masters of Illusion and VH1's Celebracadabra, and his creation D'Lite became one of the most commercially successful magic effects ever produced. Rocco has performed for distinguished audiences across Europe, Asia, and the United States.
