"Award-winning illusionist"

Stage Magic

Biography

Sabine van Diemen is a Dutch presenter, moderator, speaker and former touring illusionist whose current work brings stage focus to leadership days, congresses, award shows and corporate programs. Her official site traces thousands of performances across five continents, including Cirque du Soleil productions, water escapes and precision danger acts. Van Diemen still integrates magic into hosting and keynote formats, while Just Do It Afraid and apnea workshops turn her experience with panic and performance pressure into practical audience material.
