

Sanjeev Vinodh

"Magic Castle performer, illusionist"

Close-Up Magic | Mentalism | Stage Magic

Biography

Sanjeev Vinodh is a magician and cognitive scientist whose narrative-driven performance uses research about perception to design intelligent interactive illusions. His current official site offers close-up, walk-around and stage formats for companies, law firms, executive groups and private hosts, plus a keynote on the psychology of illusion. Vinodh first appeared on Fool Us as a teenager and later returned to earn a trophy, becoming one of the show's youngest successful performers. A direct email, phone and enquiry form confirm current bookings, especially for technology and professional audiences in California and across the United States.
