Biography

Sara Rodríguez is a professional magician based in Vigo, Spain, specializing in close-up card work and stage performance. She co-founded Magia en la Manga and Galicia's first magic school, where she teaches children and adults, and she writes about original techniques for Genii. Current festival listings and a 2026 family show confirm active public performance built around humor, audience participation and meticulous sleight of hand. Rodríguez appeared on Fool Us in 2025. A Xunta de Galicia professional profile supplies a current event-contact route, though no standalone performer site or direct booking email was verified.
