

Sebastian Kraine

"Story-driven illusion, escape magic and theatrical consulting"

Based in Los Angeles | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Dominik Krzanowski is a magician, illusion designer and theatrical consultant now presented professionally as Sebastian Kraine. His current site offers story-led magic for television and private events and publishes a direct email, while a Geffen Playhouse biography reconciles the names and documents credits spanning Fool Us, The Carbonaro Effect, cruise lines, stage management at the Magic Castle and illusion consulting. The evidence supports an active Los Angeles-area career, but the display-name change is material enough that an operator should confirm whether FindMagic should lead with Sebastian Kraine or preserve the Fool Us billing.
