Biography

Chemist and magician Simon Cassegrain began his magical journey specializing in card magic, captivating audiences with his close-up performances. He worked for various companies in France and across Europe before settling in Canada, and now appears in the Parlour Magic Show, Vancouver's only monthly variety magic show, staged at the Show Cellar in the West End.

Dynamic and interactive, the act adapts easily to the room, moving from card tricks done at arm's length to moments guests keep talking about long afterwards. His love for creating unforgettable magical moments remains at the heart of his performances, a blend of magic, laughter, and memorable moments that suits weddings, company parties and family celebrations alike.
