

Simon Coronel

"Australian precision and inventive magic from Los Angeles"

Based in Los Angeles | Close-Up Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Simon Coronel is an Australian-born, Los Angeles-based magician, creator and consultant known for exacting sleight of hand and original theatrical thinking. His performer-controlled site presents live magic for corporate and private audiences alongside consulting for television and media. An active agency profile supports current professional representation and a Los Angeles base. Coronel appeared twice on Fool Us and earned trophies on both visits, demonstrating materially different pieces rather than repeating one signature effect. His work suits events and creative productions seeking sophisticated, understated magic with strong technical construction.
