

Sly

"Ashburn stage and close-up magician"

Based in Ashburn | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events

Biography

Sly (Alec Negri) has been performing magic for well over 30 years, mixing sleight of hand with sharp humor and playful mischief so that the impossible moments happen right in the audience's hands. Northern Virginia Magazine chose his performance as one of the top things to see.

Since 2019 he has played a monthly stage show at Stagecoach Theatre, and in 2024 he launched "Magic & Mischief with the Professor and the Conman" with Dr. Ken Jones. For intimate gatherings he mingles as a strolling magician with close-up personal magic; for corporate functions, birthdays, receptions and bar/bat mitzvahs he delivers a high-energy show. Based in Ashburn, Virginia, he has performed from Washington, D.C. to California.
