"Magic Castle medal winner, Los Angeles magician"

Based in Los Angeles | Close-Up Magic

Biography

A regular performer and medal winner at the world famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, Steve Wastell believes a true magician doesn't merely do tricks but connects with an audience and takes them to a place of wonder. There are no rabbits, ropes or rings here: his magic is current, edgy, and fun, closer to David Blaine or Criss Angel with a sense of humor.

Whether he is presenting a full show or strolling among guests table to table, Steve works close enough to watch jaws drop, and every performance is tailored to the occasion. Based in Los Angeles, he suits everything from family celebrations to corporate affairs, bringing a joy and passion to his craft that leaves guests spellbound.
