

The Magic Dude

"Denver sleight, mind reading and spontaneous comedy built for connection"

Based in Denver | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Shawn Preston, also known as the Magic Dude, is a Denver-area magician and mentalist with nearly two decades of private, corporate and special-event experience. Professional event materials describe quick improvisational humor, close-up sleight, mind power and audience participation, while his Fool Us appearance presented a silent card act. A March 2026 engagement at Vail's Moon Rabbit confirms current tableside performance in Colorado. Preston has also worked nationally at company functions and trade shows. Research supports active bookings through event partners, though it did not locate a durable performer-owned site or direct booking email.
