

The Magic of Roberto

"Award-winning Toronto family magician"

Based in Toronto | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Stage Magic

Biography

Roberto has been immersed in magic since the age of five, and by his teens he was performing at family and neighbours' events and had been sought out by David Copperfield's Project Magic program, teaching magic to children with special needs. His first national appearance came on CBC, where he entered a competition and was awarded first prize.

Voted top magician in the Greater Toronto area for children and family events, Roberto brings lively, family-friendly magic to birthdays, family gatherings and celebrations of every kind. He was a key performer at Toronto's Illusionarium attraction during 2020 and 2021, his magic has been seen worldwide, and his own inventive effects have been published in the internationally distributed magic magazine VANISH.
