Timothy James

"Corporate comedy magician, close-up and stage"

Based in San Francisco | Close-Up Magic | Comedy Magic | Parlour Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

Timothy James is a corporate magician whose interactive show blends audience participation, clean comedy and sleight of hand. At cocktail parties and receptions he mingles with guests, putting the magic in their own hands: a deck of cards changes into a solid block of glass, a borrowed coin grows ten times its size, a metal spoon melts by the power of thought.

His parlour show suits office parties and hospitality suites, where bowling balls appear from nowhere, drawings come to life, and the audience comes together to predict the future. Timothy even teaches one of the secrets of magic step by step, then fools them anyway. His larger stage act plays banquet halls and theatres, and he tours a full evening show of 45 to 90 minutes at performing art centers across the U.S. and Canada.
