

Tony Clark

"Hollywood stage magic grounded in classic manipulation craft"

Stage Magic

Biography

Tony Clark is an American stage magician and teacher associated with Hollywood and known within the profession for classic manipulation and dove work. His performer-controlled website remains active and identifies a career begun in childhood, while the verified Fool Us ledger records a trophy-winning Season 7 appearance. The available site is visually rich but exposes little indexed information about present booking formats, direct contact, public dates or an exact home municipality. FindMagic can safely publish his identity, television result and broad stage specialty, while keeping event availability and more detailed location claims unresolved until confirmed.
