

TOPAS

"Twice-world-champion invention delivered with German comic precision"

Based in Ostfildern-Kemnat | Comedy Magic | Stage Magic

Biography

TOPAS is the stage name of German illusionist Thomas Fröschle, a two-time FISM world champion in manipulation whose work spans virtuoso hand magic, technological effects and large illusion. His current official site promotes multiple theatre productions and an active dates page, while direct management and international agency contacts support bookings. A business address places the operation in Ostfildern-Kemnat. TOPAS has appeared three times on Fool Us, earning a trophy on his most recent visit. His shows balance high technical density with visual comedy, audience participation and a steady stream of original ideas.
