

Victor & Diamond

"A verified television duo awaiting fuller professional context"

Stage Magic

Biography

Victor & Diamond are a magician duo verified through their Season 2 appearance on Penn & Teller: Fool Us. That appearance is sufficient to establish that the billed act is real and eligible for a FindMagic profile, but the research pass did not surface a reliable performer-owned website or authoritative source resolving the members' full names. It also found no current public schedule, professional booking route, home base or evidence that the partnership remains active. The record should preserve the exact television billing and performance link while avoiding invented biographies, locations or commercial availability.
