

Vincent Magician

"Toronto strolling and party magician"

Based in Toronto | Close-Up Magic | Corporate Events | Kids & Family

Biography

Vincent is a professional magician and event entertainer with 30 years of experience, performing magic shows for adults and kids of all ages across Toronto. He holds an Honours Degree in Fine Arts from York University and a Bachelors Degree in Education from the University of Toronto.

As a strolling magician he works the room with walk-around magic at weddings, corporate and political functions, restaurants, street festivals and seniors events. He also builds whole shows around costumed characters, among them a Harry Potter wizard, a pirate and a Santa Claus Christmas magician, and offers a preschool toddler show with live guitar music, singing, puppet routines and plenty of audience participation. Vincent has experience performing for special needs and autistic children and adults, and entertains at birthday parties, banquet halls, libraries and Halloween and Christmas events.
