Biography

Close-up magician Vitaliy Savchyshyn has built his reputation as one of the top magicians in the Vancouver area, appearing at corporate events, private parties and weddings. He has been practising and performing magic for more than 20 years, and professionally for the past 15 - hours of practice, books, tutorials and lectures sitting behind sleight of hand performed literally inches from the guests' eyes.

His speciality is close-up magic, the most direct form of the art, where every trick unfolds right in front of the people watching. It is an artful blend of illusion and interaction, and it works table by table through a room full of guests of every age. Vitaliy performs at private parties, corporate events, award ceremonies, product launches, store openings, trade shows and weddings.
