

Wayne Rogers

"Grand Master of Magic & creator of 'The Amazing Chicane'"

Based in Auckland | Comedy Magic | Stage Illusion | Stage Magic

Biography

Wayne Rogers (1944-2017) was one of New Zealand's most influential and beloved magicians, inventors, and illusion builders. Performing under the celebrated persona 'The Amazing Chicane', Rogers moved to Auckland in 1970 and transitioned into full-time performing in 1993, captivating audiences across stage illusion, close-up magic, and children's entertainment.

Honored with the Grand Master of Magic Award in 2004 by the Brotherhood of Auckland Magicians, Rogers was celebrated globally for his ingenious original inventions-including the widely used Appearing Ladder and custom trick designs manufactured under his Chicane label and performed by top artists around the world.

Performance clips

Live Performance Clip <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rSKjTF9FI0o>

Booking, profile, and official links

Booking enquiries are subject to current tour availability.

Booking enquiry <https://findmagic.show/wayne-rogers#enquire>

FindMagic profile <https://findmagic.show/wayne-rogers>

Official website <https://bam.net.nz/grand-masters-of-magic/>

YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rSKjTF9FI0o>