

Woody

"Scottish Table Magic Champion, Glasgow magician"

Based in Glasgow | Close-Up Magic | Mentalism

Biography

Woody, otherwise known as Chris Dinwoodie, was the first magician to win both of the largest close-up magic contests in Scotland in the same year, a double that made him The Scottish Table Magic Champion.

He performs Dynamo style magic combined with his natural Glaswegian sense of humour, and that cheeky charm flows through his performance and is perfect for audiences who might not be the biggest fans of magic. He passed the entrance exam for the Scottish Conjurers Association on his first attempt, becoming the youngest member at the largest magic club in Scotland, then took his first close-up booking for Glasgow University at the Hilton Hotel. At weddings he keeps friends and family entertained while the photographs are taken or during the meal, and he works corporate rooms too.
