

Yan le Magicien

"Montréal family and walkabout magician"

Based in Montréal | Kids & Family

Biography

Yan le Magicien performs family magic throughout the greater Montréal area, the South Shore and the North Shore, offering both stage shows and bilingual walkabout magic that circulates through a whole venue.

His show "L'art de la magie" was created for libraries and works beautifully as the closing event of a summer reading club; several libraries have presented it more than once. For primary schools he adapts the format to different age groups, and for the very youngest audiences he plays with children's imaginations. Yan also brings magic to Christmas gift-giving parties, company picnics and other festive occasions, and there is no age limit on the pleasure: magic, joy and wonder await older guests just as surely as children.
