

Yanyan Ma

"Chinese ballet magic flowing through silk, dance and illusion"

Stage Magic

Biography

Yanyan Ma is a Chinese stage magician and dancer whose elegant act integrates classical ballet with silk production and grand illusion. Her current agency profile presents Mandarin-language booking information, performance videos and an international career that began with professional acrobatics and magic training in Dalian. Ma became the youngest Chinese prizewinner in FISM history with a runner-up result in 2009 and has continued to receive overseas invitations. Her Fool Us appearance brought the refined movement and visual layering of her ballet-magic specialty to American television. One exact current home city is not established.
