

Zabrecky

"Award-winning Los Angeles magician"

Based in Los Angeles

Biography

Performer, speaker, and author Rob Zabrecky is a singular force in entertainment-there's simply no one else like him. Through a dynamic career spanning acting, magic, writing, speaking, and music, Zabrecky has earned international acclaim as a entirelyly original artist. Zabrecky's magic is designed for those who don't realize they love magic. His blackly comedic and bizarre magic persona transcend the medium into something between performance art and transformative comedy. For over two decades, Zabrecky has headlined theaters, magic festivals, and magic conventions from Tokyo to New York City, and has been honored with six awards from the Academy of Magical Arts at Hollywood's famed Magic Castle. His one-man comedy magic and variety show, The Zabrecky Hour , has been performed worldwide to critical acclaim. On screen, he's recognized for acting roles in A Ghost Story , Lost River , and Decay . His television work includes appearances in Fallout, Criminal Minds , GLOW , the CBS biopic series Strange Angel as well as several award-winning short films and television commercials.
