

Zoe LaFleur

"A young card magician preserved through one poised television performance"

Close-Up Magic

Biography

Zoe LaFleur is an American magician who appeared on Fool Us in 2019 at age twelve, performing an original card routine with unusual poise for a sixth-grade contestant. The CW's official video preserves the full appearance and confirms her identity and specialty. Because more than seven years have passed, she is now an adult, but the research pass found no reliable current performer-owned website, public schedule, booking route, location or evidence that she chose to continue a professional magic career. FindMagic should retain the verified television profile and video while leaving all present-day commercial fields unset.
